Hardiman to attend town-hall meeting looking into drugs in our community

LANSING – Sen. Bill Hardiman, R-Kentwood, will attend a public town-hall forum Monday night that focuses on drug-abuse among young people.

“I commend the forum’s organizers for bringing this problem to the forefront,” Hardiman said. “We have made some strides in Lansing attacking this problem, but I look forward to listening to tonight’s meeting and learning what else I can do in Lansing to help.”

The town-hall meeting is being sponsored by the Community Mental Health and Substance Abuse Network of West Michigan. The forum will be moderated by Gary Allen, morning host of WOOD radio.

The event will start at 6:30 p.m. at Calvin College’s Prince Conference Center.
